Saint Petersburg, FL 33709

Next Meeting: Thursday January 26, 2017

Our guest speaker will be Nathan Gravley of Federated Insurance Company.

He will be presenting a one hour continuing education course titled: “Taking Control of Distracted Driving”; ECLB Course # 0800677; Provider # 0001107; Prefix S.

This course counts toward one hour of the workplace safety CEU requirements.

This course will provide contractors and employees with important vehicle safety information that will help protect themselves and their employees from potentially serious harm and avoiding the high cost of traffic accidents.

This course is excellent for anyone to attend. Federated Insurance is the provider of this course and reports your attendance to the State so be sure to have your License number with you when you come. Anyone else that just wants to attend need only pay admission. There is no charge for the course, just the dinner.

Mary will be serving all you can eat ham, sausage and bean soup with cornbread, salad and dessert. If you know of anyone who would like to join the Pinellas Chapter for these programs, please forward this notice to them.
